Subject: Schoharie Reflections from Bruce and Sandy Cornwell

We have just returned from Schoharie – and found that the devastation is worse than originally stated. We heard one estimate that 75% of the flood damaged homes are condemned and will be razed. Some others are still being inspected and their owners are anxiously awaiting engineering reports.

Thanks to Sue and Shawn Bredice, Pat Smaldone, Maggie George, Joanne Gulum, and Vicki Lane who joined us in relief work today. We all returned very MUDDY, and will have a few aches tonight!! The massive devastation is hard to describe - it has certainly changed and challenged us all.

Workers are still very much needed

– go to www.schohariereformedchurch.org for current and accurate information as to the needs of the town. Schoharie Reformed Church is coordinating the efforts for the town. For volunteering in other locations and current information (and photos), contact Nancy McNiven at the Regional Synod of Albany at 374-4573 or go to www.albanysynod.org. Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions – we have been there 4 times already and will be returning again.

Information changes rapidly.

We are all one family in Christ,

Bruce and Sandy
