

Lord Jesus, I believe that you are the Son of God and came to earth full of grace and truth, bringing the Light of God to a dark and broken world. I believe you died for me, and through you I am adopted by the Father, guided by you, and given power by the Spirit. Thank you for new life! Amen.

PRAYER CONCERNS...

Hebrews 4:16

THANK YOU! For your prayers and support of the mission trip to Port Charlotte, FL. We were all blessed beyond our expectations. (There is a Mission Report with pictures available in the foyer. Please review and rejoice!)

- Students, parents, teachers, staff, administrators of our Schodack schools. Hoping to finish the year flourishing, they all face many challenging circumstances. (4/16)
- Linda Baker's cousin, Liz and her husband, Lou who is in ICU in Sarasota, FL. Lou is dealing with the effects of suffering from a stroke a year ago April and is now going through chemo for Large B-cell Lymphoma. (4/16)
- Join us in prayer for continued prayer for God's guidance and grace in difficult relationships. (4/16)
- Pastor Steward (NE India) writes praising God for protection while traveling to ministry locations from a huge storm that ravaged ~230 villages in Assam. The Training Center's kitchen was damaged. He thanks us for continuing timely financial help in support of the ministry that he can use to help with repairs. This Sunday is in the midst of another ministry trip for Steward and 3 other pastors. He requests prayer for protection and fruitful ministry. Please be praying for Steward's wife Nyapu who is experiencing health problems. Steward's closing words: "Once again I cannot stop thanking you all for standing with us to fulfilled Great Commission in this part of the world. Together we can do it!"
